CORAM : K.J. ROHEE, &
R.C. CHAVAN, JJ
DATED : DECEMBER 11, 2007

1. Heard the counsel for the parties.

2. The appellant was terminated from service in 1997. She challenged the order of termination before the School Tribunal and subsequently before the Single Judge. In 1999 the shop of the husband of the appellant was removed in encroachment drive of the Municipal Council. According to the appellant the cause of delay for preferring the present LPA is that she was out of service during all this period and that the shop of her husband was also removed. The appellant ignores the fact that the Writ Petition No. 2233/2002 preferred by her was decided by the learned Single Judge on 9.7.2002 and she has not explained the delay in preferring LPA after the said date. Thus no sufficient ground is made for condoning the delay. The application is, therefore, dismissed.
